

Liberal Party of Canada (Ontario) 2010 Annual General Meeting February 5th to 7th, Windsor Ontario

JASON CHERNIAK

Central Region President, LPC(O)

I have enjoyed the past two years as Central Region President and I thank the members of the region for having confidence in me to continue the job. I could not have done it without the support of Landon Tresise and the rest of the staff at the LPC(O) office. What follows is a report on my activities.

Representation on Management Committee

- An active member of Management since joining the board, participating in over 90% of meetings and regularly expressing my views on the topic of the day
- Support policies that increase the influence of presidents and the executive board, increase the accountability of party officials and maintain constitutional requirements
- Before meetings, regularly consult the region's presidents on the topics to be discussed
- Following meetings, update presidents on relevant information that I am free to share

Coordination of Presidents/ridings

- Attended all Executive Boards since being elected, where I chair regional meetings
- Helped organize Central Region against Bylaw 6 before the Vancouver Convention
- Regularly inform presidents and candidates of activities and important communications
- In the process of organizing regional events relating to the Canada at 150 conference
- Always return phone calls and emails from members in the region

Meaningful Central Region Meetings

- We have held two successful Central Region meetings in two years
- Our speakers have included Michael Ignatieff, Alfred Apps, MPs in the region, Navdeep Bains, Howard Stevenson, Rob Jamieson and representatives of the OLO

Fair dispersal of events

- Policy 101 was conducted by Maryanne Kampouris in York Simcoe
- The regional meetings were hosted by Peterborough and Thornhill
- An LPC(O) executive board meeting was held in Barrie in 2009
- Attempting to organize Canada at 150 conferences in each area

Communications to Members

- Chaired numerous AGMs, DSMs and Candidate Nominations
- Always give a report and answer questions at such meetings

Campaign

- I am working closely with the regional campaign chairs for the next election
- I join the monthly conference calls organized out of Ottawa

Sincerely yours,

Jason Cherniak
Central Region President, LPC(O)

Working together to overcome the challenges ahead
